Greetings to classmates:

Sorry I cannot attend the reunion to see everyone again. I just couldn’t make it work for many reasons, my health being my biggest obstacle. So many fun memories from high school. Remember the smoking lot? The politically correct world we live in now would have a stroke!! Life was so free and fun then... at least in my memories.

I am happily married to my husband of 45 years, living in Florida most of that time. (He was in the Army with my brother Mark Rooker). My mom has lived with us nearly 8 years. She will be 86 in November. Our son, Tim Cooper, lives in Florida again to our delight.

Go TNT 1965!!

P.S. Some of you know I married Tim Cooper in 1964 (November of our Senior year). We didn’t make it - only 3 ½ years. I met my husband, Bobb, in 1969, married in 1970.
